PROOF PETITIONER SERVED REVISED
DISCOVERY RESPONSES ON REGISTRANT
IN A TIMELY MANNER PER THE REQUIREMENTS
OF THE BOARD'S 9/25/15 DECISION

First, Petitioner wishes to apologize for the inadvertent clerical error that it made in its May 27, 2015 Response (Docket #24). Petitioner mistakenly stated that not all of its discovery responses were due on March 12, 2015 and in error suggested that only its Responses to Registrant's Request for Admissions were due that date. This was a mistake due to a clerical error in notes taken that were relied upon in drafting the Response, and was not an intentional misstatement of the record. Once again, Petitioner is very sorry for this mistake that was, in part, caused by Petitioner having to rush to draft and file the Response within the time permitted.

In its Decision dated September 25, 2015, the Board requested that Petitioner EDGE Games, Inc. serve on Registrant Razer revised responses to Registrant's First Set of Interrogatories, and to Registrant's First Requests for Production of Documents within 20 days of the Order. The Board further indicated that such revised responses should not object on the basis of merit.

This is to confirm that on October 5, 2015, Petitioner served said revised discovery responses on Registrant, in accord with the Board's decision. Attached as Exhibit A are true copies of proof that said revised discovery requests were served by the agreed method of Recorded Delivery, and safely received by Registrant in a timely manner.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ Tim Langdell-----
